Annual Report Showing Business for Year and Work of the Kamehameha Schools.

Pursuing his former policy in regard to trust investments in plantation bonds, Judge Humphreys yesterday morning sent out demands by letter for reports from the trustees of the Bishop Museum, the C. R. Bishop trust, and the estate of B. P. Bishop. The following is a copy of the form of letters:

"The Circuit Court, Honolulu, March 11, 1902.

"Messrs. S. B. Dole, W. F. Allen, W. O. Smith, H. Holmes, S. M. Damon, J. O. Carter and A. W. Carter, trustees of the Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum Trust, Honolulu, T. H.:

"Gentlemen:—The records of this court show that your last account as trustees of what is known as the Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum Trust was filed in this court on December 18th, 1901, covering the year ending with October 12th, 1900. You are hereby directed to file your account as trustee of said trust for the year ending October 12th, 1901, immediately.

"Very respectfully,
"A. S. HUMPHREYS,
"First Judge."

The annual accounts of the trustees under the will of the late Bernice P. Bishop were filed for the year ending June 30th, yesterday afternoon, showing the total receipts for the year to have been $285,040.88 and the disbursements $255,907.48, leaving a balance for the year of $29,133.40. The report shows investments in the bonds looked down upon by Humphreys.

Accompanying the financial statement are reports of the various principals of the Kamehameha schools, which were endowed by the deceased. The trustees report having continued filling in the swamp lands of the estate and speak also of the contemplated erection of a wharf at Kakaako. A report is made also of fencing lands for the preservation of the forests. Forest fires have damaged the properties of the estate at Kohala, Hawaii. There is a report also of the investigations of Engineer Tuttle into the water conditions of Waipio and Honokaa valleys on Hawaii. The cost of running the Kamehameha Schools for the year was $113,350, slightly in excess of the amount spent the previous year. Of this amount $37,178 is credited to permanent improvements. The list of investments of the estate shows $6000 in Oahu Railway bonds and $41,550 of this amount is in McBryde Sugar Company bonds.

Charles Dyke, principal of the Kamehameha Schools, made a lengthy report upon that school. He speaks of the success of the plan of concentrating the business offices, and says that two hundred dollars a month has been saved by that method. The total registration for the period was 145. The military organization is commended, as well as the work of the band, and the success of the athletic features now introduced is pointed out. The religious part of the education of the boys has not been neglected, and this instruction is also highly commended. The work in the manual training department was highly satisfactory, as it was also in agricultural department. The principal suggests also that the water supply is insufficient, and there is great danger from fire, recommending that electric lights be installed.

Miss Alice Knapp, principal of the preparatory department, submits a carefully prepared report upon that branch of work.

Miss Ida M. Pope, principal of the School for Girls, reports that there is a demand for trained teachers and for nurses among Hawaiian women, and suggests that opportunity should be offered Hawaiian girls to become trained nurses, as some among them have a special aptitude for this work. Larger school equipment is also needed.

An inventory of the estate is filed with the report, showing the property to consist almost exclusively of real estate on every island of the group. There is a cash balance on hand of $29,133.40 reported.

WILLIAM AULD LAID TO REST

Full Masonic Rites Said Over Remains of the Hawaiian Brother.

Funeral services over the remains of William Auld were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 in the Masonic Temple, under the auspices of Lodge Le Progres. A. F. & A. M. The casket containing the mortal body of the lamented Hawaiian was borne into the hall about 3 o'clock, and covered with beautiful floral emblems and the trestles upon which it rested were banked deeply with offerings from the Hawaiians who attended in large numbers.

Flanking the casket at the foot of the platform of the Worshipful Master of the lodge were two floral bobbles, which presented a beautiful effect. The Masonic rites were said under the direction of Worshipful Master Wallace R. Farrington. The hall was filled with Masons and the friends of the deceased, the latter largely Hawaiians. After gazing upon the face of their departed brother the Masons filed out of the hall and a squad of eight police entered and raised the casket, bearing it down the staircase to the hearse, and then acted as the guard of honor to the hearse. The honorary pallbearers were Prince David Kawananakoa, Attorney General Dole, Dr. Charles B. Cooper, Senator D. Kalauokalani, Hon. J. O. Carter and Clarence M. White.

The procession was formed with the Lodge Le Progres in the lead, Worshipful Master Farrington attended by Fred Whitney and O. E. White, followed by the pallbearers in a wagonette, the hearse with its police guard, and at the rear a long line of carriages. The Hawaiian Band played the Dead March in Saul during the period when the casket was being brought down to the hearse, and until it had reached Berea street. The band went to the Nuuanu cemetery in wagonettes, playing again at the grave.

WILL DISCUSS BUSINESS.

Young Men's Research Club to Take Up Financial Questions.

The next meeting of the Young Men's Research Club will be of even greater interest than the last one, if the plans for the discussions are carried out along the lines which are already in prospect. The club will enter the general field of business this time, and will give its evening to the consideration of the financial status of the Territory, and what may be expected from the resources of the country in the near future. There will be only two addresses upon the occasion. The first will be by Mr. J. B. Atherton, who will talk of the financial conditions in the Territory at the present time. The other will be by Mr. R. W. Shingle, who will discuss the prospects for the young business man. The meeting will be held on Friday evening, March 21st, at the residence of the Rev. W. M. Kincaid, on Thurston avenue.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY BANQUET.

Tickets may be obtained from C. J. McCarthy, C. F. Chillingworth, W. F. Erving, L. H. Dee, Thomas I. Dillon, Guy Livingston, J. A. Hughes, J. C. Quinn, Charles McGonagle.
